HISTORIC PRESENTATION NIGHT

ABOVE THE WATER

FOOLISH, TRAGIC, AND MYSTERIOUS AIR DISASTERS ACROSS THE GREAT LAKES

Explore the fascinating and often tragic history of aviation disasters across the Great Lakes with Christopher Gillcrist, former Executive Director of the National Museum of the Great Lakes. Spanning more than 175 years, this presentation examines strange and dramatic incidents, from fighter planes chasing a supposed UFO to the repercussions of the failed Cleveland Balloon Fest of 1986 and the enduring mystery of Northwest Airlines Flight 2501. Through these remarkable events, Gillcrist reveals how the Great Lakes have witnessed some of aviation's most foolish, tragic, and mysterious moments.
